

1 Regular verbs. Complete the following sentences to help you revise the rules.

For the stem of verbs ...

- a in the imperfect tense, use the nous form of the present tense without the -ons.
- b in the subjunctive, use _____.
- c in the future tense, use _____.
- d in the conditional, use _____.

The endings of the ...

- e present tense of -er verbs are: e, es, e, ons, ez, ent
- f present tense of -ir verbs are: _____
- g present tense of -re verbs are: _____
- h imperfect tense are: _____
- i subjunctive are: _____
- j future tense are: _____
- k conditional are: _____

There are no irregular endings in the following tenses:

- l _____

To form ...

- m the perfect tense, use the present tense of avoir or être and a past participle.
- n the pluperfect tense, use _____.
- o the conditional perfect, use _____.

2 Irregular verbs. Complete the grid by writing the je forms of the verbs under each heading.

infinitive	present	perfect	imperfect	pluperfect	future	conditional	conditional perfect	subjunctive
avoir	j'ai	j'ai eu	j'avais	j'avais eu	j'aurai	j'aurais	j'aurais eu	j'aie
être
aller
venir
pouvoir
devoir
savoir
vouloir
faire
prendre
écrire
dire
recevoir
voir
connaître
boire
mettre
envoyer
lire								