

Politics KS5 Transition Work

Dear Student,

hopefully you're looking forward to starting the A level Politics course in September. Could you start to prepare by doing the following preparation. I have also attached a reading list as well which may be useful. You can submit these one by one or all together before September.

- 1) Research and write/type in your own words a biography and evaluation of three different UK prime-ministers and US presidents.
- 2) Research and analyse the key elements of three different General elections/Presidential elections in the UK and US since 1945 .
- 3) Answer the following question 'The US Constitution is not as flexible as the UK Constitution' .Analyse and evaluate this statement.(25 marks)
- 4) Answer the following question 'The UK Prime Minister is far more powerful than the US President' Analyse and evaluate this statement(25 marks)
