Key quote on the Kingdom of God: 'Now after John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel." Mark 1:14-15	"The literal sense is the meaning conveyed by the words of Scripture and discovered by exegesis [careful study], following the rules of interpretation..." "The moral sense [is that] the events reported in Scripture ought to lead us to act justly. As St Paul says, they were written "for our instruction". (CCC 116-117)	Jesus encountered different Jewish groups (Pharisees, Saducees, Zealots), the Romans, women, 'the sick', 'sinners' and those viewed as 'ritually impure.' People 'on the margins of society' is a term used to describe those people who are not fully accepted or regarded by the rest of society. Women, 'the sick', 'sinners' and those viewed as 'ritually impure' were 'marginalised' at the time of Jesus	Some examples of miracles are listed below: The raising of the widow's son, The feeding of the 5,000. Turning water into wine at the wedding in Cana The healing of a paralysed man. Healing a man with demons. The stilling of the storm. The resurrection.	It is a Sacrament of Healing that provides Catholics with spiritual strength when they are ill or dying. It dates back to the time of the early Church, and the same rites of prayer and holy oil are used by priests today. It is a Sacrament in the Catholic Church which only Priests and Bishops can give.
